

CONTENTS

Introduction	7
Chapter 1 How to Define a “Nation”? A Thing, a Group, or a Category? László Vörös	11
Chapter 2 “Europe in Miniature” Representations of Ethnic Diversity of Hungary in Statistics and Homeland Studies until the Revolution of 1848 – 1849 Peter Šoltés	25
Chapter 3 The Historical Narration as a Political Programme. Analysis of Images of the Past in the Texts of the Slovak National Movement’s Programmes from 1848 and 1861. Karol Hollý	45
Chapter 4 Emancipation and Assimilation of Jews at the Time of Expansion of Political Anti-Semitism in Hungary Petra Rybářová	59
Chapter 5 The State and Its People. The Political Socialisation of the Slovak Population after the Creation of the Czechoslovak Republic Juraj Benko	71
Chapter 6 Peasant Cavalry in Slovakia - the Green Army of the Agrarian Party or its Prestigious Club? Matej Hanula	85
Chapter 7 “A Home Should Be a Home to All Its Sons”: Cultural Representations of Saint Stephen in Slovakia during the Interwar Period Miroslav Michela	97
Chapter 8 Finis Preßburg. Germans in Bratislava 1918 – 1948 Michal Schvarc	112

Chapter 9	126
Impact of the Vienna Arbitration on Agriculture, Industry and Infrastructure in Southern Slovakia
Miroslav Sabol
Chapter 10	138
Slovakia as the Subject of Political Contacts between Poland and Hungary in the Neutral European States during World War II.
Dušan Segeš
Chapter 11	155
Identity and Conflict. Communist Activist in Local Environment (1949 – 1956)
Marína Zavacká
Chapter 12	167
Twenty years wasted? Constructing a Narrative of 1989 in Slovakia
Adam Hudek
Conclusion	179
Literature and sources	183
Authors	212
Name index	213